21 Eminent Scientists and Engineers Become Officers of the United States - American Prestige on Seas Is Promised, Says Secretary Daniels.

Washington, September 19 - The navy civilian consulting board, composed of twenty-four of the nation's most eminent scientists and engineers, took its place today as a legalized bureau of the Navy Department, and the names of its members, headed by Thomas A. Edison, as chairman, were placed on the roll under a time fair, held at Rutland, Vt. This recent act of Congress, as officers of the United States Government.

The board's inauguration was attended by impressive ceremonies held each year is remarkably large, its pa- J. H. Brown, Judges; H. M. Clark in the office of Secretary Daniels. The highest ranking officers of the department were present to welcome their new comrades to the service. Secretary Daniels, speaking as admin-Istrative head of the navy, declared that the occasion signified a great strengthening for the nation's first line of defense ando gave renewed promise for the restoration of American prestige on the seas.

Immediately on taking the oath of office, the board effected a permanent official organization. Mr. Edison was elected chairman, William L. Saunders, of the American Institute of Mining Engineers, and Dr. Peter C. Hewitt, of the Inventors' Guild, both of New York City, were elected as vice chairmen, and Thomas Robbins, of the Inventors' Guild, was appointed

SEPARATE SKIRTS

Notably Ahead of the Fashions

Maybe it is the way the entire skirt is cut, or the new shape of the pockets. Possibly the girdle is different and a later style than those usually seen. But no matter which of these skirts a woman may fancy most, she can be well assured that the tailoring is all that it should be and that the skirt itself is unmistakably correct in its style. $5 to $15.

"Please Don't Show Me Any More Dresses" said one of Maysville's charming ladies the other day, after she had selected three pretty models for herself and a coat. She did not want to be tempted to buy any more.

Every day we are receiving some new dresses, coats, suits and skirts, and every day we are selling some of the prettiest styles which can not be duplicated.

Some new hats have arrived including some of Fisk's models. We can show you the very proper shoe for your costume, in gray, brown, tan or black.
